

Pacific Links Foundation

NGO Fellow Post
Long Xuyen, Vietnam

Post Summary:

The fellow is viewed as a full-time staff member of Pacific Links Foundation (PALS) and participates in program implementation, workshops, conferences and trainings alongside Vietnamese staff. Depending on program expertise and interest, the fellow may engage in providing structure for program operations. The fellow will also teach English to the staff and may develop English-teaching resources. This post is an excellent opportunity for someone who wants to learn about the inner workings and challenges of an American NGO implementing grassroots-level programs in Vietnam.

Partner:

Pacific Links Foundation (PALS) leads counter-trafficking efforts at the frontiers of Vietnam by investing comprehensively in at-risk youths to prevent trafficking before it starts, and in survivors to help them reclaim their lives.

Location and Logistics:

Long Xuyen is the capital of An Giang province. With a rapidly growing population of 300,000, it is located on a tributary of the Mekong River, six hours from Ho Chi Minh City and three hours from the Cambodian border. Although Long Xuyen does not have "food specialties," one can find some of the most delicious Mekong Delta food within the city!

Housing:

The fellow will share a room with staff members in PALS' main office in Long Xuyen. Housing is provided for work obligations in Ho Chi Minh City. Kitchen and bathroom facilities are shared with the Vietnamese staff. Meals are often cooked and eaten together with the staff.

Desired Qualifications:

Experience working at an NGO. Flexible, goal-oriented, demonstrated aptitude for change and learning both individually and in a team setting. Able to travel and work during weekends. Strong Vietnamese language skills are essential.
